Speaking Our Truth As Catholics: The Truth Will Set You Free

Presented By

Bishop Wayne Lobsinger, Auxiliary Bishop of Hamilton
Teresa Hartnett, Director, Family Ministry Office, Diocese of Hamilton

About the Event

Jesus said, "If you obey my teaching, you are really my disciples; you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." (John 8:31-32)

In this very special session, we reflect upon the truth that we are called to build our lives upon – the truth that is God, revealed to us in his Son Jesus. We begin with Bishop Lobsinger sharing a brief history of salvation through which we will discover how God reveals himself & his truth to us. Discover how God is at work in our lives & the supports we are given as Catholics to help us to know, receive & speak the truth of our faith.

Teresa Hartnett will then focus on our call to live our faith in today's world: the call to live the truths of our faith in a world that has diverse opinions on how we should live & act; the call to speak the truth in love in challenging situations, which requires knowledge, guidance from the Holy Spirit & understanding our call to charity. We are to live as a "family of families" as Pope Francis has said, which takes practical knowledge on how to live the faith in our families & in the world in ways that respect & care, while staying true to our faith teachings.
